Call for interest to join our training course!

If you are a foreign and unemployed woman...

- between 20–26 years old
- who is currently facing financial challenges (low income)
- who has a 3-year or major degree obtained in your original country
- who may have children and is looking to connect with other moms in similar situations...

THEN...

... COME AND JOIN OUR LINGUISTIC AND DIGITAL LITERACY COURSE!

- Our lawyer will provide information on Italian immigration legislation (citizenship rights, right of asylum and related operational procedures, family reunification, and mobility within the European Union).
- Our expert figures will also provide you with information about food and accommodation, healthcare, access to territorial services, social assistance, and handling of bureaucratic procedures (registration with the SSN (national health system and the request for a tax code)
- At the end of the course, you will be a foreign, trained and informed mum about handling initial bureaucratic procedures for accessing services and gaining knowledge of the new territorial context.

HOW TO APPLY:

The selection method will therefore focus on motivational interviews with a total of 75 young foreign mothers (15 per partner), which will be conducted on Zoom or other platforms, in full compliance with post-COVID regulations and EU principles of transparency and legality.
